I listened the most wonderful interview the other day.

If you do not remember who Marianne Pearl is, think Angelina Jolie and the movie currently out, The Mighty Heart. She is the wife of the American Jewish journalist that was beheaded in Pakistan, Danny Pearl.”

If you care to listen you can go to: Spirit of Defiance

She is a better person than I; in her situation I would be so filled with hate that I would be more unbearable than usual. She is right though, if you hate, the terrorist win
