

Is it just me...

- Or are winter tomatoes a crime against nature
- Or are ankle-high socks and long pants a horrible fashion statement
- Or is it obscene to build mega stadiums for millionaires to play children's games while our children's schools crumble
- Or is crazy to go to a cocktail party with all the finger foods and spend all evening shaking hands
- Or should you stay awake behind the wheel if you are the first in the left turn lane on a short light
- Or should you be wearing a crop top when your fat is rolling over your waistband
- Who cannot understand how they can ship nice juicy tomatoes all the way from Holland, but what we get from the USA are these cardboard monstrosities.
